LIVING A DEEPER FAITH

This book is for Christians who are craving a more authentic and vibrant relationship with Jesus. It will help readers explore twelve different areas which foster a commitment to Jesus and a life that is fueled by faith. There are times when we feel stuck, stagnant, or unsure of how to connect with God. This book will help believers (re)discover a loving, trustworthy God while pursuing Christlikeness. Surely, we are called to be the light of Jesus in a world that needs the Good News of His hope and love.

DEAR READER

My prayer is that you will work your way intentionally through this book - allowing the Holy Spirit to reveal new insights and show you opportunities for spiritual formation and growth. At the end of each chapter, there are discussion questions, next steps, and additional Scripture references to help you dig deep into each of these twelve areas of faith. This is not an exhaustive list, but rather, places for you to start as you desire to live a deeper faith.

BIO

Pamela was raised in a Christian home and has been a follower of Jesus as far back as she can remember. Her love for Jesus and heart for people motivated her to write this book to help others find a deeper faith and vibrant relationship with God. Pamela and her husband, Dave, have been married for seven years and have two young children. Her writing can also be found on HerViewFromHome.com and BibleStudyTools.com.

EXPERIENCE

Pamela, who is an ordained minister with the Evangelical Church Alliance, has served in a variety of ministries for over 15 years. She has a degree in Bible and theology, as well, as a seminary degree in counseling and chaplaincy. She has served in church, healthcare chaplaincy, and para-church ministries. Her current role is to oversee the ministries of pastoral care at a church in the Chicago suburbs.

INTRODUCTION

My faith has been the foundation of my life. God's presence has shaped me in ways that I cannot even fully understand or know. This book is my attempt at sharing what I have learned about God and how my faith has been strengthened through the lens of my upbringing in the church, biblical studies, and my experiences in ministry. I have much more learning to do, and a whole lot of transformation is yet to be done in my heart and life. Yet fostering these spiritual areas has helped me figure out who I am in Christ and the kind of faithful life I choose to live. In the book, I share my own stories, the accounts of biblical heroes of faith, and vignettes of people I have met. Their names and minor details have been modified or omitted to protect their privacy.

God invites us into a relationship with Him – one that we need to tend to, just as any other relationship. Our relationship with God changes us from the inside out, and over time leads to rich reliance on Jesus and faithful living. This book is not a step-by-step guide or list of do's and don'ts. Instead, it highlights areas we can nurture to help deepen our spiritual roots. Reading the pages of this book will take you on a journey that helps you get to know God better, inspires you to live faithfully in ways that honor the Lord, and hopefully, draws others to Jesus as your light shines.
