

Relationship Builder

Defined As

Seeking ways to build inclusive authentic relationships which reflect the love of Christ.

Leading Question

When and how am I engaging in caring relationships with others?

Walking Together Hand-in-Hand

Take three deep breaths as you spend time talking with God, listening to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and reflecting on what it means to be a Relationship Builder.

"They (believers) devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer."
- Acts 2:42

Reflect

How do my relationships reflect the life Jesus modeled for me and calls me to?
How are my relationships rooted in God through prayer, Scripture, and encouragement?

"Carry each other's burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ." - Galatians 6:2

Reflect

Who is someone I know that is carrying a heavy burden?
How does God want me to intentionally create quality time to connect with my family, neighbors, and community?

"And we urge you, brothers and sisters, warn those who are idle and disruptive, encourage the disheartened, help the weak, be patient with everyone. Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else." - 1 Thessalonians 5:14-15

Reflect

Is there anyone I need to seek forgiveness from or offer forgiveness to?
How does God want to use me to restore a broken relationship or heal a conflict?

"And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching."
- Hebrews 10:24-25

Reflect

Who is someone I know that needs encouragement?
Who is celebrating something that brings joy? How can I celebrate this joy with them?
