Purpose, Giftedness and Mission

Purpose

How does this congregation or organization understand its reason for being in the light of God's call to mission and service? Who are you? Why are you here?

Our mission statement is “Inviting everyone to walk together in the calling of Christ for a life of eternal impact”. A vast majority of families in our Naperville community are driven by professional and monetary success as they search for purpose and fulfillment for themselves and their children. This desire for success often leads to spiritual distraction. More than 70% of the families in the greater Naperville area do not have a church home. We desire to connect with our neighbors by offering a welcoming environment that will enable them to connect, or re-connect, with God and develop a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Giftedness

What are your gifts and resources for fulfilling this purpose? What are the congregation's or organization's top three assets and how are they being used? Are there obstacles that must be overcome to be able to use these gifts and accomplish the mission?

1. Good Shepherd is a mission and service-oriented church serving and supporting missions locally and globally. Consequently, we are always looking to find more mission-minded people to serve.
2. Good Shepherd is a caring, friendly, and welcoming community of believers. We desire to be welcoming to all, not just those who look and think like us; continually working to make everyone feel connected and part of God's family through Good Shepherd. As we grow, we strive to ensure that our members are connected.
3. Good Shepherd endeavors to stay focused on keeping “the main thing, the main thing” — being biblically-based and Christ-centered amidst the turmoil and incivility in today's society, setting our gaze on Christ to navigate the complexities of daily life

Mission

In light of the way you have described your ministry context in this Ministry Site Profile, what are the top three mission priorities which, if accomplished, hold the most promise for the continued development of this ministry?

1. Attract new members looking for a community and/or spiritual connection while rebuilding and strengthening the sense of community and trust that was lost during the pandemic. We want our church members re-engaged with Good Shepherd as their church home.
2. Provide opportunities and assistance so all can grow spiritually in their walk with Christ, through multiple worship service options, a vibrant small group ministry, and meaningful programs for people of all ages and various stages in their spiritual journey.
3. Continue to build on existing ministries while developing new ministries to reach the underserved segments within the greater Naperville area, such as families with special needs and those struggling with mental health challenges. We strive to create a welcoming environment for all people(s).

Mutual Expectations

Please list the five primary areas of activity or focus that you wish your newly-called rostered minister to give special attention to during the first year of his or her ministry at this congregation or organization:

- A. Meet, learn, and understand Good Shepherd — Strive to meet, learn, and understand the Good Shepherd staff, congregation, and family. Focus on getting to know the body of the church, who is who, the values, gifts, strengths, weaknesses, traditions, various ministries, and mission.
- B. Building a Sense of Community — Entering a post Covid season building and enhancing a sense of community within Good Shepherd.
- C. Theological and Biblically-grounded Sermons — A focus on the spiritual development of the congregation through theological and biblically-grounded sermons and other teaching opportunities.
- D. Administration, Leadership, and Staffing — Maintaining a strong, stable, and effective Good Shepherd staff and leadership team. Develop a strong respectful working relationship with the Good Shepherd staff. Understand the team's objectives and goals, as well as setting the expectations for a collaborative and supportive team culture moving forward.
- E. Forwarding Good Shepherd's Mission and Vision — Being a servant leader that supports Good Shepherd's vision and mission in conjunction with the church council, staff, and the congregation.

Please list the five ways that this congregation / organization will support and encourage the rostered minister during the first year in order to help her or him accomplish these responsibilities:

- A. Prayer — Compassionate, fervent, and spirit-filled prayer seeking courage, strength, and wisdom for our new Associate Pastor, support of their family, and the future of Good Shepherd Church.
- B. Service — The members of Good Shepherd have a strong history of giving our time to support the needs and ministries of the church and are looking forward to working side-by-side with our new pastor to continue this service.
- C. Supportive Behavior — The Good Shepherd congregation is excited to welcome our new Associate Pastor and provide support for a smooth transition through patience, grace, encouragement, and a welcoming and friendly atmosphere.
- D. Welcome/Transition Team — A collection of members from our call teams and the congregation intends to embrace and support the new pastor immediately upon arrival. The primary responsibility of this team is to provide an intentional and welcoming environment, such as inviting the pastor and their family to dinners, welcoming them to events (Young Adult Ministry (YAMS), youth, small groups, etc.) and introducing Good Shepherd traditions.
- E. Associate Pastor Support Team — A two or three-person team dedicated to being supportive to the new Associate Pastor. Meeting to provide prayer and support through their transition to Good Shepherd.

You are encouraged to offer information or commentary that will help the reader appreciate the vision, opportunities, challenges and nature of your ministry site. Use this opportunity to creatively promote and commend your ministry possibilities.

Good Shepherd is a biblically based, mission-minded, and Holy Spirit-filled congregation of over 4,000 members. Our building is located at the epicenter of a thriving and growing Naperville community in need of spiritual life and rejuvenation. Our recently discerned mission states that we are "Inviting everyone to walk together in the calling of Christ for a life of eternal impact". In a time, such as this, we are calling a leader who can shepherd, equip, and lead our body of Christ along this mission.

Our Mission Outcomes:

GOD PURSUER: We connect with our triune God (Psalm 62:1) in and through:

Worship: Two worship styles are currently offered at Good Shepherd, traditional and contemporary, utilizing both sanctuary and worship center venues.

Biblical Study: Built into the curriculum of each ministry and small group.

Missions: We currently support a variety of local, national and international ministries, including full time missionaries, seminary students, and the ELCA.

Family Ministries: Generational pursuit of God from birth to death and a thriving force within our church body (Proverbs 22:6). Of special interest is our FUSION Ministry which serves families with special needs children.

GIFT USER: We discover and offer our unique gifts to serve others (John 13:13-15, Romans 12:1-8, 1 Corinthians 12-14, Ephesians 4:11-16, Matthew 25:14-30) in and through:

Time: Multitude of servants and lay leaders (1 Corinthians 1:26-29)

Talents: Utilizing our God-given gifts (1 Corinthians 12-14) in matching individual gifts with the needs of the church body.

FAITH SHARER: We share our faith with others (Matthew 4:19, 1 Peter 3:15-16) in and through:

Mission trips (Mark 16:15)

Community outreach (Philippians 2:3-4)

Demonstrable faith in action (Colossians 3:23-24, 4:5-6)

RELATIONSHIP BUILDER: We engage in caring community with others (Matthew 18:20, Hebrews 10:24-25, Acts 2:44-47) in and through:

Care Team Ministry

Small groups

Facility utilization for Good Shepherd and non-Good Shepherd sponsored activities

GENEROUS GIVER: We steward the resources God has generously given us (1 Timothy 6:17-19, 2 Corinthians 9:6-7) in and through:

Generosity as a way of life.

Treasures: We encourage and support biblical tithing (Leviticus 27), giving above and beyond the tithe in gifts and offerings, and generously support 25 local, national, and international ministries, and missionaries.

STRONGHOLD BREAKER: We break free of sin (2 Corinthians 10:3-5, James 5:16, 1 Corinthians 10:13, Ephesians 6:11) in and through:

Accountability of self through God's Holy Spirit and in community with other believers - Prayer is essential and intentional (1 Thessalonians 5:17)

Spiritual transformation (Romans 12:1-2)

With a congregation of our size and diverse family structures comes the challenge and opportunity to bring unity and growth to camps that have been established around all manner of divisive topics and viewpoints. Keeping focus on Christ Jesus, God the Father and the Holy Spirit should always be the main thing in all aspects of our mission, ministry, and worship experiences. We know that God has called a servant leader who will indeed keep "the main thing the main thing" and work in partnership with the Senior Pastor, with a humble yet strong, Holy Spirit-filled, unifying voice.
